

HEALTH DISCLAIMER AND SALES INFORMATION

Companion Quality (not breed able)	$1200 to $1500 US dollars
Breed Quality (exceptional example of the breed) & Show Quality (outstanding example of the breed)	$1800 to $2500 US dollars

The determining factors of a pups breed status are in line with the ICCF standards and left to breeders discretion.

Deposits of $300 US dollars are required to reserve Companion and breed Quality pups.
Deposits of $500 US dollars are required to reserve Show Quality or Picks of the litter.

Pups will be ready for delivery to their new homes between the 7th to 8th week, at which time the balance of the pups cost is due.

Deposits are non-refundable unless** (the gender and quality desired is not produced).

All puppies will be examined by a licensed vet or practitioner, and will be delivered to you with a health certificate.

All Breed and Show quality pups will come with full registration paperwork. Companion Quality pups registration paperwork will be retained by breeder until spayed/neutered documentation signed by a practicing vet has been presented (mailed) to breeder along with contact info.

Pups will have tails cropped, be dewormed (if necessary), have rear dew claws removed (if present).

Ears will not be cropped at the breeders expense.
